COMMENTS

The Department of Finance is neutral on this bill as it makes numerous clarifying and technical amendments to the laws that govern various boards and bureaus within the DCA.

Most noteworthy changes include the following:

- Addition of provisions that allow the operation of temporary pharmacies.
- Requirement of the California Board of Occupational Therapy to report licensees prohibited from practicing to the Department of Health Services.
- Delete obsolete references to a physical therapist's interim approval to practice as the licensing exam is now provided on a monthly basis.
- Addition of respiratory care practitioners to the list of health care professionals who have liability protection in states of emergency.

A nearly identical bill, SB 1779 (Ridley-Thomas) of the 2007-08 legislative session, was vetoed by the Governor due to the delay in passing the 2008-09 Budget.
